CREATIVE WRITING FESTIVAL PRESENTATION EVENING 1st July 2004

Well done to everyone who was involved in the evening, particularly the winners and performers. The quality of the poetry and prose was amazing and many performances were very moving. The sixth form did a splendid job with the refreshments and also sold lots of anthologies for us. A special mention should go to Nichole Mortimer Dowse whose name was left out of the programme!

Sorry Nicole.

Overall year winners were as follows:

Year 7 three equal firsts:
Sarah Pearce, Chris Mowat and Ellie Blake

Year 8 Runners up:
Sam Davey, Alex Wright and Alex Scott.
Winner – Alex Browne

Year 9 Runners up:
Connie Blake and Amy Banks
Winner – Jamie Holmes

As a taster, here is Marcus Smith Williams brilliant poem, "Lion":

Lion

My roar is a treacherous volcano
My stomach, when I am hungry
Is like a village of beating drums.
Stare at my eyes and I will leave you alone.
I am HELL!
My mane is a forest
Of fire burning trees
And my steps
Are screams of my victims
Before they were expelled from life!

More amazing poems to follow in future newsletters!
